Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Twenty-First Annual Report of the Golden Gate Rindergarten Association: For the Year Ending October 6, 1900 Twenty years of faithful, earnest work among the needy little children of San Francisco! Twenty years of generous aid and cheerful co-operation from the citizens of this busy, restless city! Twenty years of blessings from Him who said, Suffer little children to come unto me! And so we enter upon the third decade of our work. May it prove rich in blessings to the little ones committed to our care. In 1879 the second free Kindergarten of San Francisco was opened at 116 Jackson street, under the auspices of the Bible Class of the late Sarah B. Cooper. This was the beginning of the work now represented by the Golden Gate Kindergarten Association of this city. On October 6th, 1899, the Association entered with courage and hopefulness upon the twentieth year of its existence, and the results of the past twelve months more than justify this confidence. The average attendance of children at the kindergartens, notwithstanding epidemics of measles and whooping cough, exceeded past records; the general health was good, and the work prospered in all its branches. Financially the Association was strengthened by the payment of two legacies - one of $17,379.20, received from the estate of the late Charles Mayne, and one of $2,500, received from the estate of the late Harriet Cooper.
